

Nous avons bu la meme eau We drank the same water a film by

Serge Avedikian

Film screening followed by Q & A with Director Serge Avedikian

This film centers on Avedikian's return to Soloz, the town his Armenian grandfather lived in. It attempts to restore the dialogue between Armenians and Turks and enable people to turn their minds to the future without forgetting their past.

Co-presented by the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies and the Arsham and Charlotte Ohanessian Chair.
